Happy October Everyone!

Thank you for a great start the new school year! Now that schedules are set and group classes are off and running, we get to think about recitals and concerts! Please read carefully through this newsletter, as many of you will have changes to your lesson schedule the first week of October.

 Make up lessons Due to the Rachel Barton Pine concert, I will need to miss good chunk of lessons.

Partial Missed Day	Rescheduled lesson times
Wednesday, Sept 30	5:45-8:00
Thursday, Oct 1	5:30-8:00
Sunday, Oct 4	3:00 - 6:30

Make up lesson Days	Times available
Friday, Oct 2	2:30-8:00
Saturday, Oct 3	1:00-3:00, 6:30-8:00
Sunday, Oct 4	11:00-1:30

 Rachel Barton Pine, one of the most celebrated violinists in our time, is playing with Wisconsin Philharmonic on October 4th! If you can make it to the concert, please do!!!! The repertoire is Mozart's Violin Concerto No. 5, Dvorak's New World Symphony, and Copland's Prairie Journal. This is a very accessible and lively concert, that would be appropriate for 6 and up. More info is in the "Events" at the bottom of the page.

 Nursing Home Recital Our 1st Nursing Home Recital will be on October 17th. (Please note, this is different from the original calendar) We will play at 10:00 at Seven Oaks, 6263 N Green Bay Ave, Glendale

 Events: Each month, I try to pick out at least one great concert that I think everyone should go to. This month, there are several!
